Atrium Ljungberg makes changes in the organisation

As of 1 June, Atrium Ljungberg is changing parts of its organisation. The current division in the business areas Retail and Offices will be merged to one business area under the designation Properties while letting operations will be coordinated under the business area Transaction and establishment.

Mattias Celinder, the current Business Area Director of Retail will become director of the new business area Properties, which will cover the entire company's property holding. Eleven market area managers will report directly to Mattias Celinder. The market area managers will have overall responsibility for each geographical area.

Micael Averberg, the current Business Area Director of Transaction and Markets as well as Acting Business Area Director of Offices will become director of the business area Transaction and establishment which will cover all transaction and establishment operations.

"We are changing our organisation so that it supports our business model in an even better manner. By means of the adaptation we are strengthening our method of creating sustainable city districts with a focus on value growth and are taking a further step towards our vision Our city – where everyone thrives," comments CEO Annica Ånäs.

The organisational change does not affect the structure of the company management, which after the change consists of:

Annica Ånäs, CEO
Martin Lindqvist, CFO
Micael Averberg, Business Area Director, Transaction and establishment
Mattias Celinder, Business Area Director, Properties
Linus Kjellberg, Business Area Director, Business development
Angela Berg, Business Area Director, Projects
Helena Martini, HR Director
