Anna Hallberg leaving Atrium Ljungberg's Board of Directors

As a result of Anna Hallberg being appointed as Sweden's new Minister for Foreign Trade, she will leave Atrium Ljungberg's Board of Directors.

Anna Hallberg has been a member of Atrium Ljungberg's Board of Directors since 2009, and will now leave the Board with immediate effect.

"We would like to thank Anna for her commitment and contribution to the company's development over the years, and we wish her the best of luck with her new assignment," says Johan Ljungberg, Chairman of the Board at Atrium Ljungberg.

Atrium Ljungberg is one of Sweden's biggest listed property companies. We own, develop and manage properties in growth markets in Stockholm, Gothenburg, Malmö and Uppsala. Our focus is on developing attractive urban environments for offices and retail, supplemented with residentials, culture, service and education. The total letting area is approximately 1.2 million square metres, distributed across around seventy properties and valued at SEK 47 billion. Our retail hubs draw 60 million visitors on an annual basis and our areas include more than 30,000 workers and students as well as 1,000 residents. Our project portfolio will enable us to invest the equivalent of approximately SEK 28 billion in the future. Atrium Ljungberg is listed as ATRLJ-B.st on the NASDAQ Stockholm Large Cap list.
