

AQ Group expands in Poland

AQ increases production space in both its subsidiaries in Poland

AQ Wiring Systems STG Sp.z.o.o. in Starogard Gdański in Poland has on September 25, 2017 signed an agreement with Biznes Park to buy real estate of totally 2.2 ha where a new factory building of 7000 m² will be built. The investment has a value of PLN 18.2 million. The real estate is located in Linowiec near Starogard Gdański. The purpose of a new factory building is to get a more efficient production space and organisation than today and to support a profitable growth for the future. Relocation to the new facilities is planned for December 2018. AQ Wiring Systems STG started production of wire harnesses in 1999 with 700 m² production space and has had a continuous growth.

AQ Wiring Systems Sp.z.o.o. i Łódź has in parallel signed a ten year lease of a new factory building which will be built nearby to the present building. The new building will have a surface of 12150 m² with an option to expand with 5500 m², to be compared with the current building of 8820 m². Construction start is planned for January 2018 and relocation to the new building is expected to begin in November 2018. AQ Wiring Systems Sp.z o.o started in 1996 with a production space of 400 m² and it has had good growth since the start.
