

CLS initiates recruitment process for permanent Chief Financial Officer

Clinical Laserthermia Systems AB (publ) ("CLS") today announces that the company has decided to transition from its current interim, part-time consulting CFO arrangement to a permanent and fully employed Chief Financial Officer. The recruitment process for this position has now been initiated.

The decision reflects CLS's ambition to strengthen its financial leadership and establish a more cost efficient, long-term, scalable structure that supports the company's continued growth, operational focus, and international expansion.

"Our business is entering a stage where a full-time CFO is essential to support the organization, drive financial performance, and ensure strong alignment with our strategic priorities," says Dan Mogren, CEO of CLS.

The current interim CFO solution will remain in place during the recruitment process to ensure a smooth and effective transition.
