Sivers IMA to participate in Fixed Wireless Access panel at leading Wi-Fi event

Sivers IMA Holding AB (Nasdaq First North: SIVE) today announces that the company will participate in a dedicated Fixed Wireless Access panel discussion at Wi-Fi NOW USA, a world leading Wi-Fi event. Sivers IMA will also exhibit its latest RF solution for 60 GHz infrastructure WiGig and meet with several potential customers.

Wi-Fi NOW is an established event for the Wi-Fi industry with the mission to support and promote all things Wi-Fi. By consistent work with industry leaders, entrepreneurs, innovators and experts from across the global Wi-Fi industry, it is now a remarkable force within the Wi-Fi eco-system with more than 100 leading Wi-Fi companies signed up as partners.

“To get the opportunity, not only to exhibit our products, but also to take an active part in a panel discussing the leading theme of this event is a great way to have impact on leading decision makers within our industry. I believe this is yet another proof point of the growing interest of the WiGig technology and the business opportunities it brings to both the telecom and the datacom industry. It is also clear that Sivers IMA brings interesting, unique and value adding products to this growing market.”, says Anders Storm, CEO of Sivers IMA.

Wi-Fi NOW USA is taking place at the Pullman San Francisco Bay Hotel in Redwood City, California, USA between the 15th and 17th of May and Anders Storm, CEO of Sivers IMA will be part of the Q&A panel “FWA is booming – so what is the role of Wi-Fi?” in the afternoon of May 17th.
