Linus Matkasse chooses Collector Bank

Collector Bank signs an agreement with yet another leading player, becoming the new payment solution provider for Linus Matkasse in Sweden and Norway.

Collector Bank will provide a payment solution for Linus Matkasse's websites in Sweden and Norway: linusmatkasse.se, godtlevert.no, adamsmatkasse.no and proviat.no. The agreement covers both invoice and account management. The payment solution will be in place already this year, replacing several existing payment systems at Linus Matkasse.

"With Collector Bank, we gain efficient invoice management, improving our customers' shopping experience. We will also be able to offer a 'food account' providing customers additional payment options," says Jonas Karlén, CEO Linus Matkasse.

Today's transaction entails Collector Bank further strengthening its position in payment solutions in the Nordic region.

"This demonstrates that our strategy of offering innovative payment solutions to successful players such as Linus Matkasse is the right one," says Martin Nossman, CEO Collector Bank
