Changes in Dustin's group management team – new EVP LCP Benelux

Angelo Bul is appointed new EVP Large Corporate and Public sector Benelux at Dustin and member of the group management team. He will join Dustin on Oct 1st, 2021 and replaces Luuk Slaats who has been acting EVP LCP Benelux.

Angelo has a long background in the IT and telecom industry on both a national and international level, most recently as general manager at Prio Com and before that general and country manager at ZTE.

- I am very happy to get Angelo on the management team. With his broad international industry experience and strong leadership skills he will be key to, together with the team, continuing to build on our strong position within large corporates and the public sector in Benelux. He will also play an important role in the continued development of Dustin's European position. I also want to take the opportunity to thank Luuk for staying with Centralpoint for a handover period, says Thomas Ekman, CEO of Dustin.
- I am looking forward to joining Dustin and get the opportunity to contribute to the continuous evolution and growth of the people and organisation. And I am thrilled to be part of a company with the ambition to constantly develop and have a sharp eye for customer needs, says Angelo Bul.
