Arjo's new CFO will take office on March 16

Arjo announced on January 17 that Daniel Fäldt has been appointed new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and member of the Arjo AB Management Team with start during the second quarter of 2020. The starting date has now been changed to an earlier date, March 16.

As previously communicated, Daniel has extensive experience from senior positions within finance in global stock-listed organizations, and most recently as CFO of BE Group. Daniel succeeds Jonas Lindqvist who, as announced earlier, has chosen to leave Arjo for new challenges outside of the company.
