Daniel Fäldt leaving his position as CFO at Arjo

Arjo's CFO Daniel Fäldt has due to family reasons decided to leave his position as CFO and member of the Arjo Management team with immediate effect.

"During his time at Arjo, Daniel has positively contributed to the Group's development during a time highly impacted by external challenges. I want to thank Daniel for his contribution, and wish him all the best in the future", says Joacim Lindoff, President & CEO of Arjo.

The process to find a successor starts immediately. Until a successor is in place, Joacim Lindoff, President & CEO, will hold the interim responsibility for the Group's finance function.
