Insplorion named National Winner at European Business Awards

Insplorion was awarded national Winner in the category of Innovation representing the Ones to Watch in Sweden at an exclusive event held at Café Opera in Stockholm for The European Business Awards, Europe's largest business competition, sponsored by RSM.

"Of course it is an honor to win this award. I hope this will give echo in Europe to find more innovative cooperation with interesting partners", comments Patrik Dahlqvist, CEO Insplorion.

Insplorion was chosen by a panel of independent judges including senior business leaders, politicians and academics as the best in their country in the Awards' category of Innovation, and they will now go on to represent Sweden in this category in the final stage of the competition. In total was 11 National Winners within different categories selected to represent Sweden.

Robert Hasslund, Partner RSM Sweden, says, "We are very proud over our Swedish winners. The European Business Award's event shows in a great way what successful companies we have in our country with business leaders who believe in and dare to invest in their ideas, which create job opportunities and drive Swedish business community forward. It is great to see them being recognized for their excellence and success and we wish these dynamic companies great luck in the international final."

The National Winners from each country will face further judging in their chosen category, and the final Category Winners will be announced at the European Business Awards Gala Final in Warsaw, Poland on 23rd May 2018.
