

Press release June 25, 2020

Two newly appointed board members resign from Brighter's Board of Directors.

On June 15, 2020, two new members were elected to the Board of Directors of Brighter: Anna Malm Bernsten and Peter Sibirzeff. Today, both announced that they are resigning with immediate effect. The reason is that the Board's work may become more extensive and time-consuming than predicted, as the Chairman of the Board yesterday was taken into custody by the Swedish Economic Crime Authority.

"The circumstances have rapidly changed and since the Board's workload will be far more extensive, regardless of the outcome, the conditions differ significantly from when I accepted the assignment," says Anna Malm Bernsten.

"Regardless of the outcome, the Board's workload will be more intense than the agreed upon assignment. Therefore, I choose to resign," says Peter Sibirzeff.

"Of course it is unfortunate that our newest board members are stepping down, but at the same time I understand that the workload will be more extensive and I have respect for their decision," says Jan Stålemark, convener of Brighter's Board of Directors.
