

Ahlseil acquires Finnish facility management company Malkit Oy

Ahlseil has signed an agreement to acquire all shares in Malkit Oy, who specializes in facility management products and facility security services. The company's turnover amounts to EUR 7.3 million.

Through five stores located in the Helsinki region and Turku, Malkit provides its customers a complete range of facility management and maintenance products as well as facility security services. Malkit also adds value to its customers through its well-known expertise and high-quality customer service.

The acquisition of Malkit is an important reinforcement of Ahlseil's facility management and maintenance segment. It will bring new expertise to the company, expand the customer base, and increase the number of locations in the Helsinki and Turku area.

Malkit's customers will benefit from the synergies of a Ahlseil's strength, such as a significantly wider product range and a broader logistics offering.

Malkit will continue to operate under its own brand, as part of the Ahlseil Group.

The transaction is expected to be completed at the beginning of November.
