

Anders Carlsson appointed new Chief Procurement & Supply Chain Officer for the Ahlsell Group

Anders Carlsson has been appointed Chief Procurement & Supply Chain Officer. He will assume the position in January 2026 and will be part of the Group Management team.

Anders has extensive and broad experience from senior roles in purchasing, supplier management, and supply chain at international industrial and engineering companies such as Saab, GM, and ASSA ABLOY, most recently at SKF. He has demonstrated a strong ability to drive change, develop efficient processes, and create business value through strategic management of the value chain. In his new role, Anders will have overall responsibility for the Group's purchasing and supply chain, focusing on ensuring an efficient, sustainable, and customer-oriented value chain.

– Anders represents a clear business focus, modern and inclusive leadership, as well as deep international industry expertise. This makes him the perfect person to drive our development forward and achieve the strategic goals we have set for 2030, says Claes Seldeby, CEO of Ahlsell Group.
