

PRESS RELEASE | 27 MARCH 2023

Mikael Malmgren new CFO at Attendo

Attendo has appointed Mikael Malmgren as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and member of Group Executive Management. He currently holds a position as Senior Vice President at McKinsey & Company. Attendo's present CFO Fredrik Lagercrantz will remain in his role until Mikael assumes the position.

"I am very happy to announce that Mikael Malmgren will be our new CFO. He has solid experience in analysis, change management and financial management in large and decentralized operations. We will greatly benefit from Mikael's know-how and drive in our ambition to develop care for the future to the benefit of individuals and society", says Martin Tivéus, Attendo's President and CEO.

"Attendo is a leading company that enables more and more people to get access to high-quality care around the Nordic region. I look forward to contribute to Attendo's overall development and to develop the accounting and finance function in the coming years", says Mikael Malmgren.

Mikael Malmgren is 44 years old and has a double degree in, among other things, economics from Lund University. He has also studied in Australia and China. Among other things, he has worked as CFO for Eltel and as business development director at Eltel and Bergman & Beving. Mikael assumes the role of CFO at Attendo during the month of June.
