New intercontinental service:

American Airlines now with daily flights between Munich and Dallas / Fort Worth

American Airlines is expanding its long-haul services to and from Munich: Effective immediately, the carrier is offering daily flights with a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner to the Dallas/Fort Worth metropolitan area in the US state of Texas, departing from Munich at 10:55 am.

The Texan metropolis boasts top sports teams such as the Dallas Mavericks [basketball] and the Dallas Cowboys [football], authentic cowboy culture and plenty of wide open spaces. American Airlines now has a daily connection from Munich to its largest hub. In Dallas, passengers can catch flights to 174 destinations in 44 US states. There are also connections to 40 destinations in 18 countries in the Caribbean and Central and South America, included 18 in Mexico alone.

The flight from Dallas to Munich departs daily at 15:10. Visitors to Munich will find such fascinating highlights as Baroque architectural masterpieces and world-class museums in a thriving cultural metropolis located amid charming scenery at the foot of the Alps. It's all about the mix in this fascinating city, where modern lifestyles blend harmoniously with Bavarian traditions, high-tech companies with legendary breweries, and a thriving business sector with endless leisure options. Visitors will enjoy fine culinary delights mixed with a myriad of cultural arts opportunities, from outdoor concerts to regal operas and lissome ballets.

Representatives of American Airlines and Munich Airport were on hand for the official ribbon-cutting ceremony celebrating the inaugural flight to Texas. Passengers were treated to traditional gingerbread hearts.

FMG (Flughafen München GmbH), incorporated in 1949, operates Munich Airport, which opened at its present site on May 17, 1992. It is jointly owned by the Free State of Bavaria (51 percent), the Federal Republic of Germany (26 percent) and the city of Munich (23 percent). The FMG corporate group, with its 21 subsidiaries, employs approximately 10,000 people. With a total workforce of about 35,000, employed by about 550 companies, Munich Airport is one of Bavaria's largest workplaces. Within just a few years of opening, Munich Airport developed into a major air transportation hub and was firmly established as one of Europe's 10 busiest airports. Munich Airport now offers connections to more than 250 destinations all over the world. In 2018 Bavaria's gateway to the world has handled approximately 413,000 flights with 46.3 million passengers. Bavaria's gateway to the world became the first – and is so far the only – airport in Europe to be honored with the prestigious title of »5-Star Airport« by the London-based Skytrax Institute.
