NetEnt scores with the launch of Football: Champions Cup

As Europe's best footballers arrive in France to kick-off a sublime summer of soccer, NetEnt is giving players the perfect chance to join the Euro 2016 with the launch of Football: Champions Cup.

The five-reel, three-row and 20-line video slot for both desktop and mobile is packed with footie fun and sure to help get fans in the mood.

Featuring a penalty shootout bonus game and free spins, along with wild and overlay wild substitutions, Football: Champions Cup also includes NetEnt's trademark stunning design and gameplay experience.

Simon Hammon, Chief Product Officer of NetEnt, comments: "All eyes this summer will be glued to the European Championship football, and our exciting new release taps into that interest and gives fans another reason to cheer. Our unique game design and the fun shootout bonus game will be the perfect addition to a fantastic summer of sport."
