Helena Hed new President and CEO of Projektengagemang

Projektengagemang's Board of Directors has appointed Helena Hed as new President and CEO. She has over 15 years of experience in various managerial roles within the Sweco Group and most recently comes from the role of Managing Director of Sweco Management. She succeeds Per-Arne Gustavsson in January 2021.

– The Board is pleased to announce Helena Hed as the new President and CEO. Helena has solid experience in urban development and a proven ability to create results and growth. She has a strong commitment, deep insights in how a consulting business works and has the leadership skills required to lead Projektengagemang towards increased profitability and growth. Together with our strong management team, her mission is to continue to develop our employees and our operations, says Per Göransson, Chairman of the Board of Projektengagemang.

Helena holds a Master of Science degree with long experience from the civil engineering consulting industry. She has a leadership that focuses on the employee, the customer and the community. For the past 15 years, Helena has worked in various managerial roles within the Sweco Group and most recently as Managing Director of Sweco Management.

– I am very proud and happy to have been given the confidence to lead Projektengagemang into the future. Projektengagemang has a strong reputation and I look forward to getting to know and to develop the business together with employees, customers and the board, says Helena Hed.

Helena Hed will take over as President and CEO in January 2021.
