

Invent Medic Sweden AB's product Efemia bladder support will be listed on the 15th of October for reimbursement in Germany.

Invent Medic Sweden AB announces that its distributor Arteriomed GmbH has received information from The National Association of Health Insurance Funds GKV that it will, from October 15 2020, include Invent Medic's first product Efemia bladder support in the list of medicinal products of the statutory health insurance companies.

By inclusion on the statutory list of medicinal products, Efemia bladder support will be listed to the pharmacies in Germany as an aid eligible for reimbursement, according to the Aids Directive of the Federal Joint Committee.

- We are in active discussions with major health insurance companies such as AOK Rheinland, says director of Arteriomed Helga Wachtmeister. Once Arteriomed has finalized the discussions with the relevant insurance companies, the women in Germany should get a broader access to Efemia. Once these discussions are completed, we will know the level of reimbursement, she adds.

- I am thrilled that we, after almost a year of discussions with the authorities, have come this far in getting Efemia bladder support available for reimbursement in Germany, says the CEO of Invent Medic Karin Bryder.
