

Press release 4 September, 2017

New President and CEO for GARO assumes his new position on 4 September

Carl-Johan Dalin will assume his new position as President and CEO for GARO on 4 September. As earlier communicated, he was appointed this role to succeed Stefan Jonsson, who will retire after many years with the company.

Carl-Johan Dalin joins GARO from Draka Kabel Sverige AB, where he has been CEO since March 2014. Carl-Johan Dalin has a degree in engineering and, during his 14 years with Draka Kabel Sverige, has held several positions, including Chief Technology Officer. Stefan Jonsson will support Carl-Johan Dalin for a transition period.

For more information, please contact:

Anders Pålsson, Board Chairman: +46 70 320 32 02
Stefan Jonsson, President and CEO: +46 70 588 66 73

GARO develops, manufactures and supplies innovative products and systems for the electrical installations industry under its own brand. The company has operations in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Ireland and Poland and the Group is organized in two business segments GARO Sweden and GARO Other markets. GARO has a broad product assortment and is a market leader within several product areas. The Group had sales of MSEK 658 in 2016 and has approximately 330 employees. Its head office is located in Gnosjö.

The business concept is “with a focus on innovation, sustainability and design, GARO provides profitable complete solutions for the electrical industry”.