

Press release from Bergs Timber AB (publ)

Mörlunda, 12 December 2018.

Bergs Timber conducts organizational change

Jan Liljegren will January 1, 2019 take the position as CEO for Bergs Timber Production AB, and will be responsible for the Swedish operations. In the autumn, Jan held the position as Production Director and now stands up as CEO.

At the same time, Bitus, our Swedish wood protection business, will be a new business area. Bitus has a strong market position and we see great opportunities to further develop the business. The change marks our increased ambition level in the wood protection segment and a future development towards an ever-increasing degree of further processing of the products in Bergs Timber Group. Henrik Egnell will be responsible for business area Bitus and report directly to the CEO in Bergs Timber AB.
