Bonava to take part in Expo Real Trade Fair in Munich

On 7-9 October, Bonava will take part in the annual Expo Real International Trade Fair for Property and Investment in Munich, Germany. The goal is to meet with investors to brand Bonava as the leading housing developer.

Expo Real is a meeting place for Europe's foremost players in the real estate industry. Investors, real estate developers, industry related services, politicians as well as cities, communities and other industry stakeholders will meet for three days to discuss on economy, financials, construction matters especially on affordable housing, property availability and location attractiveness besides trends impacting the industry and possible solutions.

Bonava's fair stand will serve as a meeting place for discussions on residential construction and development with focus on displaying some of the many homes and vibrant neighbourhoods created by Bonava with the vision of creating happy neighbourhoods where people have the highest quality of life.

Bonava strives to offer affordable homes in dynamic and functional areas and to create neighbourhoods where people feel a sense of belonging and live their lives happily. To succeed in this endeavour, Bonava aims to increase the level of industrialisation and standardisation in its production to boost its efficiency in order to keep cost leadership.
