Nobina launches strategic review of its interregional business

Nobina is launching a strategic review of its interregional express bus services business.

“Our interregional operations have performed well in the highly competitive market for interregional transport in Sweden. Nobina’s focus, however, is on regional traffic and we are therefore studying different alternatives. This is part of our continuous responsibility toward our shareholders,” says Ragnar Norbäck CEO for Nobina.”

Nobina expects the review to be completed in 2017.
