Flowscape, together with Ricoh, wins new business in Switzerland

A Swiss company has chosen Flowscape's room booking solution for their new head office. The deal is being carried out together with our European partner Ricoh. The order value the first year is 290,000 SEK and thereafter 90,000 SEK annually.

"We have a very good collaboration with Ricoh in Switzerland and we are happy for this deal together. In this phase, the customer's solution only includes the rooms, but it is under discussion to also include the work desks in the next phase of the installation." says Peter Reigo, CEO and founder.

The customer selected Flowscape's smart room booking system for its head office in Switzerland. The solution to be delivered includes room panels, mobile app, web app, Outlook plugin, app for kiosk screens, room sensors and analytics tools. With the solution, the customer gets the market's best solution for optimizing the use of their meeting rooms and creating a simple room booking flow for their employees.

The deal was carried out together with Ricoh in Switzerland.
