

The CEO of Flowscape changes role in the company

After 13 successful years as CEO of Flowscape Technology AB, Peter Reigo is changing his role in the Company. In his new role he will be responsible for product management and sales to large customers. This is part of strengthening key parts of the company for continued expansion.

The CEO and founder Peter Reigo announces today his desire to change roles in the Company. The work to find a new CEO for Flowscape Technology AB will begin immediately. The change of organization will be implemented when the successor is in place.

"I am very proud to have taken Flowscape from a small start-up in my basement to a multinational company that today has a turnover of over SEK 50 million. After 13 years in the same role, I now feel that it is good timing to bring in a new CEO to scale us further towards the next big milestone, SEK 100 million in turnover. Since I am passionate about product management and sales to large customers, it will be great fun to be able to focus on it full-time. I look forward to working together with a new CEO, who has the right experience and drive to make Flowscape develop further at an even higher pace." says Peter Reigo, CEO and founder of Flowscape

"The board has today received Peter's wish to change roles and we respect that decision. Peter is an important person for Flowscape both as founder, leader and major shareholder. Therefore, he will be a key person in our continued journey to develop a leading product and to win and develop large customers. The board will immediately begin the work to recruit a new CEO." says Per Adolfsson, Chairman of the Board Flowscape.
