

Talkpool postpones the publication of the annual report for 2022

Talkpool will postpone the publication of the company's annual report for the financial year 2022 from April 21 to a later date. A new date will be communicated in the coming days. The postponement is due to a delay in connection with the audit. The delay is of a purely administrative nature and is not affecting the results reported in the year-end report on March 10.
