

Kongsberg Automotive appoints new Investor Relations Manager

Zurich, August 16, 2021: Jakob Bronebakk has been appointed as the new IR Manager, effective August 16, 2021. Jakob will be based in Oslo and will report to Joerg Buchheim, President and CEO.

As the IR Manager, Jakob will actively support and strengthen Kongsberg Automotive's future communication towards capital markets, investors, analysts, and banks.

Jakob's experiences include his work in capital markets, investment, insurance and banking, as well as start-up consulting in London and Oslo. He co-founded MyBank, ASA, where he was the CFO from 2017-2019, and was appointed as the managing director in 2019. Additionally, he has also worked as a managing consultant for CapGemini, and held the CFO position for Jernbanepersonalets Bank og Forsikring.

Trained as a Chartered Financial Analyst from the CFA Institute, Jakob has a Bachelor's degree from the London School of Economics (LSE), and also holds an MBA from the Norwegian School of Economics (NHH).

"It's great to have Jakob on board. Together with Jakob, I am looking forward to strengthening Kongsberg Automotive's pro-interactive communication with our shareholders," says Joerg.
