GomSpace Appoints Jane Rygaard as Vice President of Products Business Unit

GomSpace Group AB today announced that Jane Rygaard will join the company as Vice President of the Products Business Unit, effective 1 April 2026. Jane will become a member of GomSpace's Executive Leadership Team and be based in Aalborg, Denmark.

The Products Business Unit is a core pillar of GomSpace's long-term growth strategy, underpinning competitiveness and scalability across markets. The business unit is pivotal to the company's mission of making space accessible, affordable and useful by delivering world-class, scalable satellite technologies.

With over 20 years of international leadership experience from Nokia, Jane brings deep expertise in product and business management, building ecosystems with leading technology partners, and driving execution at scale. Most recently, she served as Head of Corporate Partnerships, with responsibility for global strategic partnerships, commercial agreements, and new business development. Throughout her career, she has built a strong reputation for transforming complex technologies into scalable business opportunities and leading high-performing global teams.

"Jane is a very strong addition to our executive team," said Carsten Drachmann, CEO of GomSpace. "She brings a rare combination of deep product leadership, commercial rigor, and international experience. Jane will play a key role as we strengthen execution and lead GomSpace into an exciting and prosperous 2026."

"GomSpace is at an inflection point where technology, ambition, and market momentum align. I am excited to join the company to scale the business and deliver solutions that shape the future of space. The GomSpace mission - to make space accessible and useful for everyone, demands clarity, innovation, and strong collaboration, and I look forward to working with the team to turn that mission into reality," said Jane Rygaard.

Jane will become a member of GomSpace's Executive Leadership Team and be based in Aalborg, Denmark.
