GomSpace receives order for satellite platform kits valued at 34 MSEK

GomSpace Group AB has received a follow-up order from an existing, undisclosed customer in the EMEA region with a total value of approximately 34 MSEK.

The order comprises GomSpace's satellite platform kits—modular, flight-proven solutions designed to reduce system integration complexity and shorten time-to-mission. By providing a pre-integrated and scalable satellite platform, these kits enable customers to accelerate development while maintaining high performance and flexibility.

This order builds on an existing partnership between GomSpace and the customer, underlining continued confidence in the Company's products and capabilities. The order will be delivered over several quarters in line with project milestones.

“Long-term partnerships with our customers validate the value we deliver and the reliability of our subsystems,” says Jane Rygaard, VP Products Business Unit at GomSpace. “Our platform kits allow customers to accelerate their development timelines without compromising on flexibility or performance.”
