

Kongsberg Precision Cutting Systems places two-year order for XMReality Remote Guidance

Kongsberg Precision Cutting Systems, a manufacturer of state-of-the-art digital cutting systems used for precision cuts at high speeds for packaging, signage, and display purposes has signed a two-year software contract for XMReality Remote Guidance.

Kongsberg plans to use a company branded version of XMReality Remote Guidance primarily for support to their customer base and field support between technicians. Kongsberg Precision Cutting Systems was acquired by OpenGate Capital, a global private equity firm in December 2020.

“We will do our utmost to support Kongsberg during their deployment phase to ensure they end up with great results”, says Jörgen Remmelg, CEO at XMReality.
