Capital markets day, 12 June 2018: Ferronordic presents its work with digitalization, employees and compliance

Today, 12 June 2018, Ferronordic Machines AB ("Ferronordic") arranges a capital markets day for analysts, investors and media to highlight how the company conducts a sustainable and increasingly digitalized business in Russia.

Lars Corneliussen, CEO, starts the day with a general overview of the Russian market, the company's operations and its aftermarket focus. Anders Blomqvist, CFO, describes the company's financial targets, efficient use of capital and profitability development.

Then follows a presentation of the four main themes of the day. Onur Gucum, Commercial Director, starts by presenting the company's work towards increased digitalization, e.g. the development of Ferronordic's "Rules Engine" and its system for automatic sales-leads generation.

Nadezhda Arzumanova, HR Director, presents Ferronordic's HR strategy where customer centricity, competence development, strategic competence targets and individual development programs are important components.

Henrik Carlborg, General Counsel, presents Ferronordic's corporate governance and compliance program. Henrik describes how the company applies the Swedish corporate governance code and works with an open and non-hierarchical culture. He also presents Ferronordic's zero tolerance for bribery and corruption.

Chris Weafer, Senior Partner, Macro-Advisory Ltd, concludes the day by presenting his view on Russia's economic and political development.

The capital markets day will be held at: IVA Konferenscenter, Grev Turegatan 16, Stockholm, on 12 June 2018 between 08:30 – 12:15 CET. The presentation is already available on the company's website. A link to the event will be available at the company's website shortly after the capital markets day has ended.
