Ferronordic awarded “Dealer of the Year” by Volvo CE

Ferronordic has received the “Dealer of the Year” award from Volvo CE for the EMEA region for 2019.

Volvo CE once a year extends a “Dealer of the Year” award to a partner that has demonstrated exceptional performance during the year. For the EMEA region in 2019, the award went to Ferronordic. Volvo CE comments on its choice:

“Ferronordic has increased the excavator market share in a fiercely competitive market and has a highly structured approach to competence development. The dealer has also made a true change journey, embracing digitalization in order to increase aftermarket revenue and is actively expanding its business by utilizing new business models.”

Ferronordic’s CEO, Lars Corneliusson, comments on the award:

“I am proud to receive this award on behalf of our organization. Our employees have worked hard to make this possible. It is gratifying to receive such acknowledgement from our colleagues and friends at our key partner. I am also delighted that our constant efforts to develop our team and invest in innovative and digital business solutions are recognized.”

The nominees for the year 2019 were, in addition to Ferronordic, Volvo CE’s dealers in South Africa and the Netherlands. This is the second year in a row when Volvo CE recognized the strong performance of Ferronordic. In 2018, Ferronordic was named the “EMEA Best Service Dealer”, in recognition of its high levels of customer satisfaction, strong coverage model and high service quality.
