

Starbreeze opens mobile production management offices in Barcelona, PAYDAY Crime War production boosted by BadFly Interactive

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN (January 16, 2017) Starbreeze AB, an independent creator publisher and distributor of high quality entertainment products, today announced its opening of a new mobile production management focused offices in Barcelona. Leveraging internal competencies and the rich mobile development culture of the region, the office will manage and supervise internal mobile projects such as Geminose developed by Behaviour and PAYDAY Crime War, now under the care of BadFly Interactive.

“Starbreeze Barcelona will closely monitor the wrap up of Geminose and also focus its efforts on PAYDAY: Crime War. After a due diligence of the progress on the mobile version of our beloved PAYDAY franchise, we found a lack of focus on our product. As we want to see this game realized as badly as many of our fans, we’ve moved production to another studio, BadFly Interactive. As part of a work-for-hire partnership, BadFly have accelerated the development considerably”, said Bo Andersson-Klint, Starbreeze CEO.

Release date for PAYDAY: Crime War and Geminose will be announced at a later date.

The Barcelona studio, starting with 6 employees, will additionally focus on further developing Starbreeze existing IPs into the mobile space.
