

STARBREEZE TO SHOWCASE RAID: WORLD WAR II, DELIVER US THE MOON, AND THE CONSOLE EDITION OF DEAD BY DAYLIGHT AT PAX EAST

Note to press: Starbreeze will be at Booth #18055 at PAX East. If you would like to arrange an appointment, please contact val@sandboxstrat.com.

MEDIA BLAST, STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN (March 7th, 2017) Independent games publisher Starbreeze AB has announced it will demo three upcoming titles at this year's PAX East, taking place in Boston March 10-12, all playable to the public at Booth #18055:

- RAID: World War II, the action-packed co-op shooter from developer Lion Game Lion in which teams of up to four players go undercover behind enemy lines to destroy the Nazi war machine. Journey across battle-ravaged settings with unique character classes and weapons to hold the line against overwhelming odds and liberate Europe. RAID: World War II is expected to launch this summer on the PlayStation®4 computer entertainment system, Xbox One and Windows PC.
- Deliver Us The Moon, an action adventure game developed by KeokeN Interactive in which players embark on a desperate voyage to discover the secrets of the moon to save a dying earth. The adventure will launch on Windows PC. The game's release date and other platforms are to be determined and announced at a later date.
- Dead by Daylight, the asymmetrical multiplayer horror game from developer Behaviour Interactive, which will be shown for the first time on consoles. This do-or-die struggle for survival, which pits four fast-witted humans against one fearsome killer, is expected to arrive on the PlayStation®4 system and Xbox One this summer.

Starbreeze's station on the show floor will also have an assortment of merchandise and giveaways to offer attendees who stop by.
