

Majority owner Varvtre AB changes its ownership in Starbreeze

STOCKHOLM (6th October 2017) Starbreeze AB has been informed that its majority owner, Varvtre AB, owned by the CEO Bo Andersson Klint, has completed an off-market transaction where Varvtre exchanges 2.0 million class B shares against the same amount of A shares and sells 3.25 million B shares to one of Starbreeze existing institutional owners.

Varvtre's net sales of shares is conducted for personal economic reasons, where the majority of funds from the transaction will be used to pay off loans that funded previous year's purchase of Class B shares in Starbreeze. Following the transaction, Bo Andersson Klint, directly and indirectly via Varvtre, owns 18,618,667 Class A shares and 5,377,886 Class B shares, representing 24.38 percent of the votes and 8.51 percent of the holding in Starbreeze. The transaction represents an increase of 1.88 percent of Varvtre's total number of votes.
