OVERKILL presents: STREAMING DEAD LIVE, an epic four-hour launch event broadcast live to Twitch from Starbreeze Studios in Los Angeles

The celebration of OVERKILL's The Walking Dead launch will feature gameplay, giveaways, mayhem and more.

With a horde of walkers, celebrity guests, exclusive giveaways and a badass survival expert, this is not your typical Twitch event. OVERKILL, the crew who brought you Payday 2, are showcasing their newest release with a killer lineup of gaming influencers. Shroud, JGh0sty (Team Ninja), Anne Muniton and AngryPug will team up to fight through a variety of missions throughout the broadcast.

Greg Miller (Kinda Funny), will not only host the event and preside over an action-packed itinerary, he'll also be smashing heads IRL during the stream.

Expert survivalist and legitimate badass David Canterbury (Discovery Channel) will be popping in throughout the event, offering practical real-world advice on surviving a zombie apocalypse. During the broadcast OVERKILL will be giving away Steam codes, exclusive merch and more to viewers, who will also be able to alter the gameplay environment via Twitch to keep the gamers on their toes.

There will be carnage, there will be screaming, there will be swearing. And with a horde of walkers wandering around, no one's safety can be guaranteed.

About OVERKILL's The Walking Dead:

Inspired by Robert Kirkman's original graphic novels, OVERKILL's The Walking Dead is a four-player co-op action game where players must band together on a variety of missions and raids to find survivors, secure supplies and stay alive. Use stealth to evade enemies tactically, or dismember walkers limb from limb with brute force and firepower. Each of the game's four playable characters has their own special abilities, skill trees, squad roles, play styles and background stories.

OVERKILL'S The Walking Dead will arrive on the PlayStation®4 computer entertainment system and Xbox in February 2019. Console pre-orders are available now digitally and at most major retailers.
