

OVERKILL's The Walking Dead expected to be unavailable for purchase on Steam due to disagreement with licence holder

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN (February 27, 2019) – Skybound, the license holder of OVERKILL's The Waling Dead, has filed a license related complaint with the main digital distribution platform for the Starbreeze game OVERKILL's The Walking Dead. As a consequence, the product is expected to be removed from new purchases on Steam within a near future. Starbreeze and Skybound are in discussions about the agreement and Starbreeze is trying to resolve the issue to find an amicable solution with the ambition to finish and deliver season 2 of the game, as previously communicated.

"We are deeply sorry for the issues this may cause anyone who has bought the game looking forward to the resolution of Season 2 and are working urgently to attempt to resolve the issue. Please keep an eye on the official OTWD channels for further news," said Mikael Nermark, Acting CEO Starbreeze.
