

Episurf Medical strengthens its organisation with a Deputy CEO, Christian Oloffson, and Head of Property Management, Petra Widén Lindh

Episurf Medical AB (publ) (Nasdaq: EPIS B) has appointed Christian Olofsson as Deputy CEO and Head of Business Development and Petra Widén Lindh as Head of Property Management. The recruitments are a strategically important step in the Company's continued build-up of a broad and cash-flow-generating property platform.

Christian Olofsson, Deputy CEO and Head of Business Development

Christian Olofsson takes up the role of Deputy CEO and Head of Business Development, with responsibility for analysis, transactions and valuations.

Christian has nearly 20 years of experience in the property sector across the Nordics and the Baltics. He is currently CEO of Tenzing and CEO and founder of Idun Fastigheter, and has previously held positions including partner and CEO of Scandinavian Property Group, as well as other senior roles within transactions and projects.

Petra Widén Lindh, Head of Property Management

Petra Widén Lindh is a senior leader with extensive experience in property management. She takes up the role of Head of Property Management, with overall responsibility for managing the Company's property portfolio, tenant relations, leasing and other value-creating measures.

Petra joins most recently from Fastighets AB Balder, where she served as Head of Property Management, and has previously held leading roles at, among others, HSB and Riksbyggen.

Jens Andersson, CEO of Episurf Medical, comments:

With Christian and Petra in place, we are taking a decisive step in building our property platform. Christian brings deep transaction and business development expertise, while Petra contributes solid property management experience from leading Nordic real estate companies.

- Jens Andersson, CEO, Episurf Medical
