

FlexQube receives a follow up order from Volvo Car US Operations

The car maker Volvo Cars places an order for additional 213 carts

FlexQube has received an additional order for dollies, to be used with the STILL Liftrunner B-frames, from Volvo Car US Operations. The order mirrors the order received in October of last year and is for the four different versions of dollies initially delivered. The order will be delivered to the Volvo Car plant in Charleston, South Carolina during Q2 of 2018. The order will be booked on order intake of Q1 of 2018.
