The name change has been registered: CELLINK AB (publ) new name is BICO Group AB (publ)

As of today, the name change from CELLINK AB (publ) to BICO Group AB (publ) has been registered with the Swedish Companies Registration Office. The new name reflects the Group's business strategic agenda within bio convergence and also clarifies that the BICO is a Group consisting of 11 subsidiaries divided into three business areas.

"In five years, we have built a world-leading group that offers something unique – namely a bio convergence revolution. This concept is so strong and guiding for us that we decided to name the company after it. By combining different technologies, such as robotics, artificial intelligence, computer science, and 3D printing with biology, we contribute to our customers being able to improve people's lives for the better. We have always challenged and developed the industry. We will continue to do this in a new context since the new name releases even better opportunities to communicate our offering, our plans going forward, and how we contribute to create the health of the future", says Erik Gatenholm, President and CEO of BICO.

Change of ticker from CLNK to BICO
