

Joakim Wanner appointed Sales Director at Svenska Aerogel Holding AB (publ)

Svenska Aerogel Holding AB Svenska Aerogel Holding welcomes Joakim Wanner as Sales Director at a stage when customers are approaching the pilot- and expansion phase and new ones are starting development projects with Quartzene. Joakim Wanner takes over from Marco Mayor who continues in his own business.

Joakim Wanner joins the management team at Svenska Aerogel with responsibility for continuing to drive sales of Quartzene in close collaboration with the company's distributors globally.

Svenska Aerogel's business plan for expansion has qualified the company to be an attractive partner for manufacturing industries. The company has a scalable production technology, quality-assured operations in accordance with ISO 9001, developed a unique application support and builds experience from development projects in selected segments.

- We are very happy to welcome Joakim, says Tor Einar Norbakk, CEO of Svenska Aerogel. He has the experience and expertise needed to continue to develop our business with Quartzene and we have a very interesting year ahead of us. Over the past year, the company has developed the sales network and strengthened collaborations with customers. We see results and expect a continued good growth. We thank Marco for his great efforts and wish him good luck when he continues in his own business.

- It is exciting to join Svenska Aerogel. I am convinced that Quartzene has an important role to play for sustainability, for example with energy savings and fireprotection, says Joakim Wanner Sales Director Svenska Aerogel.

Joakim Wanner latest assignment was at Wacker Kemi AB, where he was responsible for the Industrial solutions area within Wacker's silicone division, in the Nordic and Baltic countries, as well as handling major international customers.
