

Svenska Aerogel Holding AB (publ) advances the publication of its financial reports

To provide shareholders and investors with up-to-date information about the company's development, Svenska Aerogel advances the publication dates of its financial reports. The change will take effect with the interim report for the third quarter of 2025, which will be published on October 24, 2025.

The decision is made possible by the company's efforts to develop internal processes, streamline data management and digital infrastructure, thereby strengthening the organization and its competencies. The purpose of this adjustment is to provide shareholders and investors earlier access to relevant and reliable information about the company.

"Through an efficient reporting process and strong internal controls, we are creating greater transparency and openness in our financial communication, providing the market with better conditions to understand and assess the company's value," says Tor Einar Norbakk, CEO of Svenska Aerogel.
