ÅF wins new hydro power consulting contracts

ÅF's Swiss subsidiary AF-Colenco has been awarded an additional contract for the ongoing Nant de Drance pump storage power plant project in Switzerland (the initial contract worth 27 million Euros was announced 23rd of September 2009, see www.afconsult.com).

The new scope of work includes an evaluation of increasing the capacity from 600 MW to 900 MW and related design tasks.

Other projects signed by AF-Colenco where a feasibility study for a hydro power plant in Myanmar – and a similar hydro power contract in India.

These contracts all together are worth over 4 million Euros for ÅF.
