ÅF wins consulting contract for a biomass power plant project in Estonia

ÅF has won, through its Estonian subsidiary, ÅF-Estivo AS, a significant consulting contract in Estonia.

Fortum Termost AS will build a 24 MW CHP plant in the city of Pärnu, Estonia. The power plant will use biofuel.

ÅF will be responsible for the project management, plant design and contractor supervision in the project.

This contract strengthens ÅF's position further as the leading technical consultant for power plants in Europe and Asia.
