Inside information: Oriola Corporation CEO Katarina Gabrielson resigns

Oriola Corporation Stock Exchange Release 16 November 2026 at 8.30 a.m. EET

Inside information: Oriola Corporation CEO Katarina Gabrielson resigns

The Board of Directors of Oriola Corporation and CEO Katarina Gabrielson have mutually agreed that Gabrielson will step down from the CEO position at the latest 31 March 2027.

“Gabrielson started as Oriola’s CEO in 2022. During her time, Oriola has clarified its strategy, stabilised profitability, and started significant investments to be more competitive in the future. Gabrielson has also built a commercially oriented, experienced and ambitious management team. I want to thank her for dedication and valuable input in Oriola’s development,” says Heikki Westerlund, Chair of the Board of Oriola Corporation.

“It has been a privilege to lead the company and to work alongside so many dedicated and talented colleagues. I am very proud of what we have achieved together. I believe the time is right to hand over the leadership, and I do so with great confidence in the company’s future,” states Katarina Gabrielson.

“The Board of Directors has initiated the search process for a new CEO. The Board is searching for a person who is fully committed to accelerate value creation benefiting Oriola’s shareholders and to strengthen Oriola’s profile as the most wanted workplace in the industry,” Westerlund concludes.

Oriola Corporation
Board of Directors

For additional information, please contact:
Heikki Westerlund
Chair of the Board of Directors
email: heikki@heiwes.com

Distribution:
Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd
Key media