Change in Pihlajalinna's Management Team

Antti-Jussi Aro, the Chief Information Officer of Pihlajalinna Plc, has decided to leave the company. His final operating day will be on 10 May 2024. The recruitment process for the successor has started.

– I want to thank Antti-Jussi for his valuable contribution to develop Pihlajalinna's IT and digital capability. Promoting information security, data protection, seamless interfaces, and digital business are essential for enabling effective business operations. Forty percent of the company's transactions already take place remotely. I wish Antti-Jussi all the best in his future ventures, says Pihlajalinna CEO Tuomas Hyyryläinen.
