

SBB offers summer jobs to 200 youths

Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB (publ) ("SBB") offers young people the possibility to engage in summer jobs – for every full-time employee in SBB's property management, one youth is being employed.

SBB is Europe's most socially sustainable property company as the largest owner of social infrastructure. In this role, the company stands up for society through various types of social efforts and continues to invest in sustainability and delivers social infrastructure that is of great importance to many people.

A summer job provides the opportunity to grow as an individual, take responsibility and build new relationships both in business and privately. Summer jobs for young people have been important for the company since the start five years ago.

"We are happy to be able to offer 200 youths across Sweden summer jobs, hence contributing to a positive start to working life", says Annika Ekström, Head of SBB Property Management.
