

Press release 2 July 2020 (18:45 CET)

Shareholding of CEO following incentive program

In connection with the exercise of warrants and subscription of shares under Instalco AB's incentive program Series 2017/2020:1 and Series 2017/2020:2 respectively, the company's CEO Per Sjöstrand has reported sales of shares. The sales were conducted in order to finance the subscription of new shares. Per Sjöstrand's total shareholding has increased by 157,834 shares compared to before the exercise of the warrants to subscribe for new shares.

Per Sjöstrand's current holdings amount to 4,380,372 shares, corresponding to approximately 8.7 percent of votes and capital, compared with 4,222,538 shares before the incentive program.

Information about transactions carried out by persons in senior executive positions is reported in the Financial Supervisory Authority's PDMR transactions register.
