New President and CEO of Faberge

The Board of Directors of Faberge has appointed Stefan Dahlbo as the new President and CEO. He is currently President and CEO of the listed investment company Byggmästare Anders J Ahlström Holding AB and has a long and solid experience as CEO and board member of both listed and unlisted companies. These former board assignments include, for example, Faberge, Wihlborgs and Klöver. Stefan Dahlbo will assume his new role as soon as possible.

- We at the Board believe that Stefan Dahlbo is an excellent person to take over the leadership and development of Faberge. He knows both the real estate industry and the capital market very well. Several of us on the Board have worked with Stefan previously and have great confidence in him, says Jan Litborn, Chairman of the Board.

In previous roles, Stefan Dahlbo has distinguished himself for his good leadership and entrepreneurial ability, which are important characteristics of a company that is so strongly characterized by visionary and complex urban development projects where many parties are involved and good relations a prerequisite.

- I am very happy and proud of the trust the board now gives me. It is a dynamic and very successful company that I look forward to becoming a part of, says Stefan Dahlbo.
