PRESS RELEASE

24 March 2021, 07:30 am CET

Faberge appoints Johan Zachrisson as its new Director of Business Development and member of the Executive Management Team

Johan Zachrisson will be responsible for transaction, rental and market. He comes most recently from a role as partner at Cushman & Wakefield and has a long and solid experience in the industry, both as a consultant and from real estate companies.

- We are very pleased to have Johan Zachrisson joining our team. His extensive experience with development projects, rentals and transactions will contribute to our future development and we look forward to welcoming him, says Stefan Dahlbo, President and CEO at Faberge.*
- Faberge is a company that has always impressed with its thoughtful strategy, high business tempo and stable delivery. Furthermore, a nice crew with sound values. Both the mission and becoming a part of Faberge feels very good, and I look forward to getting started,” says Johan Zachrisson.*

Johan Zachrisson will be included in Faberge's Executive Management Team and will take up the position after the summer.
