Nitro Games announces changes in management

Jussi Immonen will join as COO, and CMO Mikko Kähärä will leave the company.

Nitro Games Oyj announced that industry veteran Jussi Immonen joins the company as COO. Immonen has more than 15 years of experience in marketing and management positions from companies like Rovio, Nokia, RealNetworks, Mr. Goodliving and Chat-Republic Games. In his position as General Manager, Head of Rovio Stars Studio at Rovio Entertainment, Immonen was responsible for Rovio Stars publishing business and games business of externally produced titles.

Nitro Games is currently re-structuring its marketing functions. As part of the re-structuring, CMO Mikko Kähärä leaves the company for personal reasons with immediate effect.

Jussi Immonen will also join the Management Board of Nitro Games.

“I’m happy to welcome Jussi Immonen to join our story. With these changes in our management, I’m positive we’re bringing our capabilities to a new level, especially in self-publishing. During last five years Immonen has been launching and operating more than ten free-to-play games, and this brings a ton of valuable experience for us. I’m also positive that what we’ve built so far is a good basis for him to continue working on.” says Jussi Tähtinen, CEO & Co-Founder, Nitro Games Oyj.
